

An Ultimatum to Mexico Increases the War Tension

A Well Authenticated Report That Huerta Has Been Called On to Resign and That European Powers Will Back Up American Demands

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The president let the Mexican situation simmer a few hours today while he went to Princeton to vote. The tension over this government's ultimatum to Huerta was not relaxed until his absence. Before his departure he conferred with Secretary Bryan. All officials here are silent concerning the notice to Huerta to vacate the presidency and seat no partisan. The understanding here is that the attitude of this government will be to await developments.

Senator Bacon, chairman of the foreign relations committee, after a conference with Bryan, said: "I consider the situation nearer a conclusion. We are very hopeful that things will turn out well."

Secretary Bryan issued a statement in which he declined to discuss or use the words "ultimatum" or "note." The statement said he made it a rule not to discuss reports concerning international matters, but the nature of reports from Mexico suggested a departure from this rule.

"No ultimatum was sent Mexico. It is unfortunate that the press gave credence to such reports. As a misstatement regarding international matters may lead to serious consequences, I feel justified in making the above denial."

The confidence in official circles is taken to indicate that the United States is satisfied all great powers have agreed to support the administration's policy.

Football Game ON HOME FIELD NEXT SATURDAY

GOLDFIELD WILL BE THE GUEST OF TONOPAH AFTER THE PLAY.

Saturday, November 8, the football teams of Tonopah and Goldfield high schools will meet here for the second of a series of three games arranged between the two institutions. The game will be played on the Volunteer Firemen's field and will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

The Tonopah boys have been practicing for the past three weeks, overcoming the weaknesses developed by the first game. The team, which will be chosen Friday night, will be the best that the local high school can put on the field and a fast, hard game is assured.

Friday night the high school students and friends will hold a rally on the streets and in the high school gymnasium, to which every one is invited. This is a general jolly-up occasion and every one should know by the time the rally is over that a football game is to be played Saturday.

Saturday evening after the game a dance will be given in honor of the visiting team. Dancing from 9 until 12 in the high school gymnasium. The best of music and a good floor, together with the spirit which will prevail, should make this a very enjoyable affair. Owing to expense incurred in having this game, admission of $1 for the dance and 50 cents for the game will be charged.

PREPARING TO WORK THROUGH THE WINTER

WILLOW CREEK GOLD MINING COMPANY GETTING INTO HARNESS.

Development work has been resumed at the property of the Willow Creek Gold Mining company and in both the tunnel and mine will be pushed, says the Ely Examiner. The tunnel was driven 157 feet with only a wheelbarrow to bring out the muck, but now a track has been laid and a car is at hand to make the work easier while better progress can be made. Preparations are also being made against winter weather, which may come at any time, and a wagon road has been constructed over which lumber and other materials and supplies can now be delivered at the tunnel in quicker time and with less exertion. The road building was participated in by all the men in the district, who suspended work on their properties to make this needed improvement, which is for the benefit of all the district. The tents in which the men working for the company have been living are being boarded up to make them comfortable in cold weather and the company camp may now be said to be permanently established.

A tunnel has been started on the Battle Axe group, adjoining the company property, and assays from a sample taken 18 feet from the portal gave values of $15.10, which is deemed very encouraging. This group is expected to prove as good if not better than the company's and work will continue steadily to develop the ledge.

Another four-horse load of supplies will be sent out after the first of the month by the company and the camp will be stocked up for all winter, so that should bad weather come the work can go on without interruption.

OLD MAN WAS DRAWING INCOME FROM INSURANCE COM- PANY IN OMAHA.

W. S. White, the old carpenter found dead in his cabin near the county hospital, came to his death from pneumonia, according to the coroner's jury, which completed holding an inquest late this afternoon.

An examination of the effects by Coroner Dunsen disclosed the fact that White was insured in the Mutual Benefit Insurance company of Omaha for $10,000 and that he had a paid-up policy for that amount, but had hypothecated it for a loan. Inquiries to the company brought no reply and no information was received from any of the supposed members of the family of the deceased.

Consolidation at Manhattan With Steam Shovel Mining

FIRST AMATEUR CHAMPION SPRINTER HERE

CHARLES SEITZ RETURNS AFTER AN ABSENCE OF FOUR MONTHS IN THE EAST.

Charles Seitz, of Goldfield, who has been identified with the mining interests of that camp for the last seven years, returned home this morning after spending three days in Tonopah as the guest of Fred J. Amigo.

Mr. Seitz has been four months in New York with his old associates and returns to the desert filled with optimistic views of mining prospects in this part of the state.

Even few of his intimate friends know that Charles has held more world's amateur records than any other man in the west. He has always been a strict believer in amateur sports and has done all in his power to inculcate the lesson of the Turners that a healthy mind makes a healthy body. At his own expense he organized the boys of Goldfield into an association that made some good records and then organized a Goldfield branch of the League of the Holy Cross cadets, who are so numerous and influential in San Francisco.

Mr. Seitz graduated from Georgetown university, Washington, D. C., in law, but decided not to follow that profession, but to come west and out on his own career. In 1905 he held the world's record at Washington for the 60 and 50-yard dash, and also repeated the world's record for 50 yards at Coney Island. He held the United States championship for 50, 60, 75 and 200 yards from 1905 to 1907, inclusive, and then added the South Atlantic championship for 220 yards. In addition he captured the 100 and 220 yards Canadian championship. He also held the New York state championship for three years, from 1905 to 1907, inclusive. He has at his home over 320 medals, not counting loving cups and washers in endless variety.

The only change has been to name a new shift boss.

JUDGE FARRINGTON REFUSES TO DISMISS RECEIVER OF PROP- ERTY INVOLVED.

CARSON CITY, Nov. 4.—An opinion filed Saturday by Judge Farrington of the federal court denies the motion made by the intervenors in the case of Roxa against W. S. Johnston of Tonopah. The intervenors, C. H. Enquist and B. G. Ross, asked that the order appointing the receiver of the property which Mrs. Johnston, in her application to set aside a decree of divorce, claims belongs in part to her, be set aside on the grounds that they are partners of Johnston. The property over which the receiver, T. F. Bonneau, has charge pending the final determination of Mrs. Johnston's suit, is the Big Casino saloon and dance hall at Tonopah. Property involved in the action is valued at about $100,000.

The court held that the evidence of partnership was not sufficient to warrant a modification of the order appointing a receiver. The court also refused to fix, at this time, the salary of the receiver or receiver's attorney.

The report of the receiver was approved except as to two small items. The motion of the defense to dismiss the action was overruled but the motion to strike out portions of the complaint and the motion to make more definite was sustained in part.

Mine and Mill Owners of the North- ern Camp Getting Together In a Comprehensive Scheme for Coining the Scenery of the Pine Tree District

H. H. Thompson of Manhattan, representing the Salsberry interests, and Louis K. Koontz, president of the Big Four Mining and Milling company of Manhattan, left this morning for San Francisco, where they go to complete a deal that is said to have reached the last stage of negotiation for the consolidation of the most important claims and mills in the Manhattan district.

The proposition is one of the largest ever handled in this territory as it involves $3,000,000 and contemplates placing the entire Manhattan district on a different milling basis, eventually merging every milling plant under one roof. The best saving will come from treating the surface, which carries values down to an unknown depth, making it one of the best low-grade promotions in Nevada.

At present the Salsberry people are running 150 tons a day through a ten-stamp mill with a net saving of from $2.50 to $3 a ton. Mr. Thompson brought in last evening by auto a bar of gold valued at $3000, 730 fine ounces and worth $14.60 an ounce. On the Big Pine claim of the Reilly Fraction Thompson has opened a cut 85 feet wide at the top and 30 feet at the bottom. From this gloryhole the rock runs $4.50 a ton and the cost of treatment, including mining, milling and hauling, is $1.50 a ton. One shot recently broke over 200 cubic yards of ground.

The Salsberry company is said to be backed by Lundstrom, the "Lucky Swede" of Nome, who has had his eye on this district for some time. The only delay has been caused by conflicting owners, who have held out for more than the buyers thought their claims and mills were worth.

The Jackling syndicate of Salt Lake is treating a mountain of $2 ore in Alaska at a profit of $1.50 a ton and J. H. Mackenzie, formerly general manager of the Goldfield Consolidated, is financing a company that proposes to clean millions from $1.50 ore. The Jackling company expects to pay dividends on a capitalization of $25,000,000 with 1000 stamps running.

EXPERT SAMPLING OF CINNABAR FULL WIDTH OF THE BIG LEDGE RETURNS 2 PER CENT QUICKSILVER

Frank J. Davis, former manager of the Shoshone Quicksilver company, of Lone, the chief producer of "quick" in Nevada, has returned from Mina, where he spent a couple of days with Al Wardle examining the cinnabar claims located last summer by Messrs. Wardle, Booth, Douglass and Bruce of Tonopah. They sampled the ledge very carefully and submitted these samples to several assayers to get positive returns from the showing without trying to swell the values.

A sample from clear across the nine and one-half feet of the ledge gave returns of 2 per cent mercury. This is the most conservative estimate had up to date and one that is very flattering to the expectations of the locators, when it is known that a good profit can be made from extraction that yields only one-half of 1 per cent.

"There is a good showing of a heavy sulphide quicksilver of a good grade, with a big face that stands fifteen feet," said Mr. Davis this morning. "This will sample clear across nine and a half feet and will pan sulphide of mercury, the same as sulphide of lead. The formation lies in crystallized form of high-grade mercury that shows up well, with stringers of cinnabar all through the time. In Texas the veins stand in lime for a depth of 500 feet. This lime formation is different from what is found in California. We tried to make a cold-blooded sample of the property, as there is no use deceiving yourself, and the result shows clearly that there was no sweetening of the samples."

BIG CASINO CASE IS DECIDED BY U. S. COURT

Concerning the treatment of the tonnage at Cinnabar City, Mr. Davis said that camp had many advantages over Lone, as wood could be laid down there for $225 a cord, when they are paying $7 a cord at the former county seat. He estimates that a furnace can be installed at a cost of not to exceed a thousand dollars a ton, and this would be sufficient for all requirements.

WILL DISCUSS APPOINTMENT OF A PROBATION OFFICER

Tomorrow afternoon the county commissioners, sitting as a town board, will hear from the Tonopah Woman's club on the expediency of appointing a woman probation officer to look after boys and girls of the camp. Free autos will be at the bank building corner before the meeting and all persons who are interested in the movement are urged to avail themselves of the meeting to attend.
